

TELECOMMUNICATIONS MANAGEMENT GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW SENIOR MANAGEMENT APPOINTMENTS

ARLINGTON, VA – February 16, 2010

Telecommunications Management Group, Inc. (TMG) is pleased to announce the promotions of David Wye, Sofie Maddens-Toscano, and Daniel Leza to serve as Vice Presidents of the company. David Wye will be Vice President, Strategy and Policy. Sofie Maddens-Toscano will be Vice President, Regulatory Reform. Daniel Leza will be Vice President, Legal and Regulatory.

David Wye, with his more than 20 years of experience in the telecommunications sector, is a strong asset to the TMG team. He brings a tremendous depth of knowledge, having worked at the Federal Communications Commission and for private sector companies such as AT&T Wireless and Lockheed Martin.

Sofie Maddens-Toscano is highly regarded internationally for her work advising regulatory authorities in many countries around the world, as well as regional organizations and international organizations, for the past 20 years. Her substantive knowledge, language skills, and combination of European experience, as well as developing country experience, make her a key telecommunications expert to private companies, regulators, regional organizations, the International Telecommunication Union, and the World Bank.

Daniel Leza is an invaluable member of the TMG team and has demonstrated strong leadership skills in developing our legal and regulatory practice, particularly in Latin America, as well as our competition practice. Prior to his tenure at TMG, he worked at the Comisión Nacional de Telecomunicaciones, the regulatory authority in Venezuela, as well as in the private sector.

Janet Hernandez, President of TMG, noted that: “David, Sofie, and Daniel all bring strong leadership skills and a wealth of expertise to TMG. I am confident that their abilities and attributes will further enhance TMG’s reputation as it continues to expand to meets its clients’ needs. Their appointments to new senior management roles will position TMG for its next phase of growth.”
